

Skeptical about sight words/high frequency words? Read these articles to learn more about the purpose of learning them.

Sight words are like your best friends' names. They are words that you know immediately with no hesitation.

Read more at ReadingRockets.org

Sight words don't replace phonics; they complement it. [they] provide a foundation of instantly recognizable words that make up the structure of sentences.

Read more at speechblubs.com